PATRICK MONAHAN

'THAT 80s SHOW' 2017 UK TOUR

It's the 1980s and Patrick Monahan's Irish Iranian family arrives in Teesside escaping from the Iran war. Patrick's memories and reminiscences of being an immigrant to Great Britain make for a totally unique stand-up show! 'That 80s Show' is the sequel to Patrick's hit 2015 show 'The Disco Years' both directed by Phil Nichol. Instead of focusing on 80s pop-culture Patrick talks about his personal experience of the 80s - moving with his parents from Iran to the UK, starting school without any English, his Irish/Iranian heritage, his dad's experience of discrimination, his mother's experience of migration.

Patrick's UK tour starts on the 4th of February 2017.

'His tales of being an immigrant to Britain are thought-provoking yet hilarious, he loves his audience and they love him back. Patrick is a Fringe legend and it's easy to see why.'

DAILY MIRROR ★★★★★ AUGUST 2016

Patrick Monahan is adored by his audiences everywhere! He performs all over the UK and Europe and has appeared in far-flung hotspots including Dubai, Bahrain and Costa Rica! He is very much in demand, performing literally hundreds of shows a year and was the winner of the 2015 www.Ents24.com 'Hardest Working Comedian of the Year Award' for playing the highest number of venues in the UK! In 2015 he also won the Stand Up For Labour Act of the Year comedy award, which is voted for by audience members at the events. His many TV appearances include 'Weekend' (ITV) 'Safeword' (ITV2) 'Celebrity Squares' (ITV) 'Fake Reaction' (ITV2) and 'The One Show Edinburgh Festival 2015' (BBC1).

In 2012 he took part in Let's Dance for Sports Relief on BBC, won Best Newcomer at the Loaded LAFTA Awards and Forth Radio Best Stand-Up People's Choice Award for his hit show 'Hug Me I Feel Good'. Patrick was the winner of the 2011 ITV1 series 'Show Me The Funny' which led to the release of his debut DVD 'Patrick Monahan Live' (2 Entertain). Patrick is a regular MC and headlining act at the top London and UK comedy clubs and in addition to this he is in huge demand on the corporate circuit as an after dinner speaker and awards host. Patrick also is a keen runner and fundraises for the charity Zoe's Place.

Thur 16th March at 7.30pm - Tickets £14.00

THE ELVIS YEARS THE STORY OF THE KING

Fri 13th Jan at 7.30pm

Tickets £21 Pass Card £19.50

The Elvis Years is an outstanding musical production which brings to the stage the incredible and compelling story of the 'king of rock and roll' - Elvis Presley.

With a top line-up of actor-musicians, multiple costume changes and nostalgic film footage, this glittering two-hour production charts the musical and emotional highs and lows of Elvis' amazing journey from poor truck-driving teenager from Tupelo, Mississippi through the army, Hollywood and finally the legendary Las Vegas concerts.

This feelgood show will instantly transport you back to the golden years of rock'n'roll, as you witness Elvis audition for the very first time at Sun Studios, then become part of the TV audience for the '68 Comeback Special, and finally a Las Vegas concert as Mario recreates with incredible accuracy the charisma, stage presence and humour of the man himself - you may even get your hands on a scarf!

Directed by top record producer David Mackay (Dusty Springfield, Cliff Richard, Bonnie Tyler, New Seekers), the lead role is perfectly portrayed by Mario Kombou (from West End production Jailhouse Rock), who is officially endorsed by Elvis Presley Enterprises and Elvis' first cousin Donna Presley.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF ME (MYERS STUDIO)

Thur 26th Jan at 8.00pm

Tickets £9 Students/Unwaged £7

Thirty years on from Shirley Valentine, 'Deep in The Heart of Me' tells the story of 53 year old housewife Janet who goes on a solo holiday to Greece and meets the woman of her dreams, in a man's suit, singing Frank Sinatra songs. Using songs from the Rat Pack repertoire to tell their story, this new play explores themes of midlife anxiety and the empty nest with poignancy and humour.

Nominated for Best LGBT show at Brighton Fringe 2016
this show is for anyone age 12+.

'Very touching, very simple, heart-rendingly delivered'

ROY ORBISON AND FRIENDS

Sat 4th Feb at 7.30pm

Tickets £21 Pass Card £19

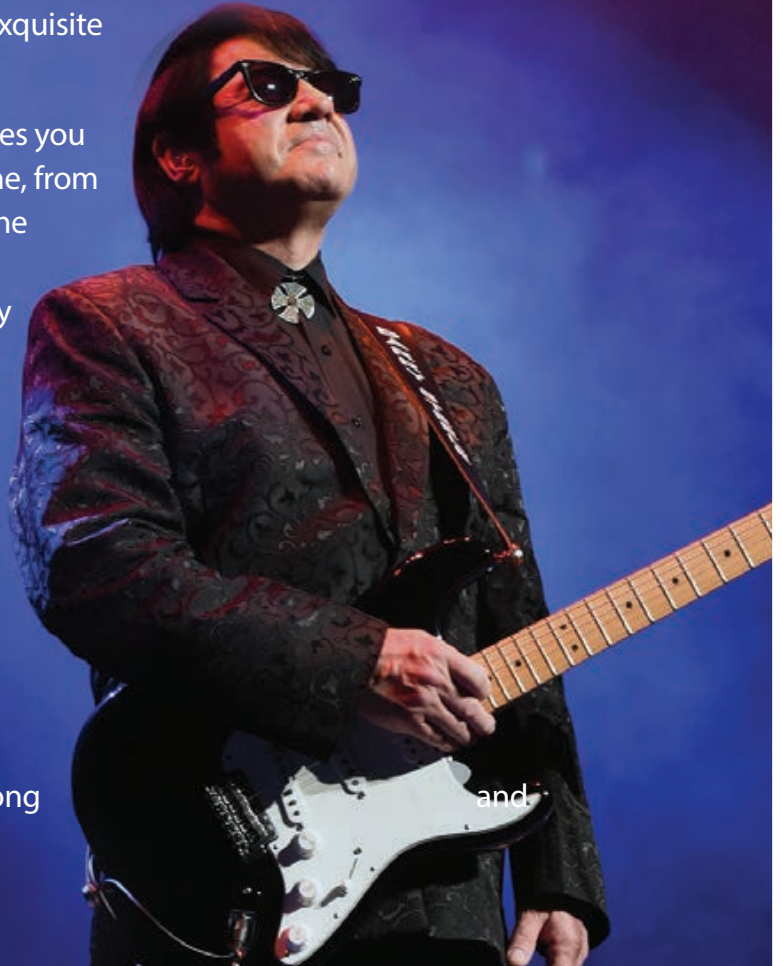

Barry Steele is widely recognised as one of the world's leading vocalists playing homage to legend Roy Orbison. He's stunned audiences across the globe with his uncanny similarity and ability to authentically revive the exquisite toe-tapping sound of this music giant.

Barry Steele is quite simply unmissable, as he takes you on this specially produced musical journey in time, from the early '60s right through to the late '80s and the internationally acclaimed concert 'The Black and White Night'. The show also honours the time Roy spent with the Traveling Wilburys.

Featuring chart busting hits originally made famous by Cilla Black, Jerry Lee Lewis, The Shadows, The Spencer Davis Group, Joe Cocker and of course the Big O, all backed by a big screen and phenomenally talented musicians resulting in an incredible fusion of 60s solid gold classics and 80s contemporary musical genius all on one stage.

This production really is very special, so come along and celebrate the Big O's legacy with us!

BUGSY MALONE BY EWELL CASTLE SCHOOL

Wed 8th Feb at 2.30pm & 7.30pm

Thur 9th Feb at 7.30pm

Tickets £15 Child/Senior/Unwaged £10

Following the rip-roaring success of Oliver The Musical, Ewell Castle School present this slick, slapstick musical comedy. Bugsy Malone follows the rivalry between two half-witted street gangs and the suave and sophisticated Bugsy himself.

Along the way he finds love, laughter and befriends a cowardly boxer, destined for stardom. In this film noir spoof, the message is one of good, clean, family fun; the characters are wonderful cartoon cut-outs; and the weapons of choice are "splurge" guns, custard pies and a whole lot of attitude. It could get messy!

SO, YOU THINK YOU KNOW ABOUT DINOSAURS?

Mon 13th Feb at 2.30pm
Tickets £15 Child £12.50
Family £50 (2+2 or 1+3)

So you think you know about...

DINOSAURS?

With Ben Garrod

Did dinosaurs eat their own families?

Was every Tyrannosaurus rex a fearsome carnivore?

Come and test your knowledge against Ben Garrod (the TV scientist in "Attenborough's Giant Dinosaur"). With the help of TV film footage and photos of his own palaeontological dinosaur digs, he will tell you everything you ever wanted to know about dinosaurs - and more.

This is an interactive show where children will be given the chance to ask questions and show off their dinosaur knowledge to the audience. Ben's assistant will roam the auditorium with a microphone and take questions from as many children as possible. Using film footage from the BBC's 'Planet Dinosaur', Ben will talk about the deadliest predators that ever roamed the planet and the ones that, 60 million years ago, would have walked right where you are sitting now.

SUPERSLAM WRESTLING

Thur 16th Feb at 7.30pm

LADY CHATTERLEY'S LOVER*

Fri 17th Feb at 7.45pm | Tickets £11.50 Pass Card £9.50

"Obscenity only comes in when the mind despises and fears the body, and the body hates and resists the mind." The story follows Connie Reid, a cultured, independent thinker who marries the emotionally distant Sir Clifford Chatterley. Connie turns to the bed of the lowborn gamekeeper Mellors and experiences true passion and genuine intimacy for the first time. This however leads to a dramatic love triangle and public scandal.

GARY DELANEY -THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT GARY

Sun 19th Feb at 7.30pm
Tickets £14

'There's Something About Gary'... and that something is he likes to write and perform jokes, a lot of them. He thinks a good joke should be like a drunken Glaswegian, short and punchy.

Gary's last tour was extended four times and took in over 240 dates. This tour will once again showcase exactly why he is seen as the premier gagsmith of his generation. Through Twitter and TV he's become one of the most quotable comedians in the country. Gary loves each and every gag and you can't help but be carried away by his infectious charm. He's like a cheeky schoolboy who can barely hide his glee with each and every punch line.

The Epsom Playhouse - A fantastic little theatre in the heart of Epsom with an impressive hall of fame was opened officially on 24th Jan 1984 by councilor Ronald Gee.

The Playhouse started out as a community Centre of sorts but evolved with time to host professional shows as well as community hires. The first show was a grand concert celebrating the opening in Jan 1984 – although the theatre officially opened in 1983. The auditorium back then was used for The Blood Donation service, Beds were brought in and the bleacher style seats were stacked. We still have space under the theatre seats we call the bleachers due to the seating arrangement many years ago.

We have continued to grow and develop as a theatre and pride ourselves on our community ethos, we believe there is something here for everyone whether you're a theatre novice or seasoned regular, which is why we are so proud to have been finalists for the category 'Commitment to the Community' in The Epsom and Ewell Business Awards 2016

The theatre Auditorium now seats 450 as the seating capacity has increased over the years and plays host to major leading theatrical companies and performers showcasing Comedy, Opera, Dance, Drama, Light Entertainment, Variety and Family Shows. We strive to offer a wide and varied programme of events featuring both professional and community productions.

We have a smaller space called The Myers Studio within the Playhouse which is a fantastically warm and inviting space that seats up to 80 and is used as a regular venue for professional productions, our ever popular Studio Jazz evenings, children's shows and community events. Both the Auditorium and the Myers Studio are available for both corporate and private hire.

Having a small but wonderful team behind the scenes is what keeps us at the forefront of Theatre Entertainment. Management, Technicians, Marketing/PR, Duty Managers and Box Office all work together to ensure an enjoyable experience for our patrons from show conception right through to being directed to your seat by one of our stewards.

Both the Auditorium and the Myers Studio are available for both corporate and private hire.

We are extremely lucky to have a team of 40 Volunteer stewards who give so much time and dedication to The Playhouse; the stewards have a varied role that can be quite demanding depending on show schedules. Stewards are here to help, advise and direct but get involved in marketing too. Our longest serving volunteer has been with us for over 30 years (which equates to stewarding approximately 8,000 shows) with most stewards having 5 - 28 years' service respectively.

EAT, DRINK & LOVE
Thur 23rd Feb at 7.30pm
Tickets £16

Eat, Drink, Love! is a musical celebration of human appetites –for drink, for food and even for each other, spiced with a dash of Merry Opera sauciness. With favourite operatic pieces, lesser known gems and deliciously delightful 1920s cabaret songs, we bring musical (and other) jokes to connoisseurs while helping newbies discover the beauty of classical music and live performance.

Buried among the lust, jealousy, comedy, murder and other manias found in the plots of opera there are many moments when food and drink take centre stage. As John Ramster says: 'If music be the food of love, play on, and if music be the love of food then play on as well!' We hope the audience will go home afterwards feeling warm and satisfied.

Rika and Edith, close and caring sisters, are about to discover a shocking truth about their past. Can they adapt or will they now, after seventy years, become strangers? A heartwarming play, set on a kibbutz in Israel in the early 2000s, that reveals the politics, rivalry, sweetness and sadness of the two sisters lives; two journeys that are inextricably entwined.

The plays of multi award-winning writer Gail Louw are performed in the UK and throughout the world.

Swinging at the COTTON CLUB

SWINGING AT THE COTTON CLUB

Featuring the Lindy Hop Dance Company
& The Harry Strutters Hot Rhythm Orchestra

Sat 25th Feb at 7.30pm
Tickets £20 Pass Card £19

Take a step back into 1920s & '30s New York City and through the doors of Harlem's hottest nightclub, 'The Cotton Club'!

'Swinging at The Cotton Club' is the action-packed show celebrating the music and dance of the Cotton Club – New York's most celebrated nightclub of the 1920s and '30s.

Performances by Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong, Cab Calloway, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, and Fats Waller would have had the club swinging - whilst dancers such as Bojangles Robinson and the Nicholas Brothers lit-up the stage with their breath taking routines.

In this show, the exhilarating dance and music of the Cotton Club is recreated by the fabulous Lindy Hop Dance Company and the show's special guest tap-dancer, alongside The Harry Strutters Hot Rhythm Orchestra, featuring American vocalist Marlene Hill and compere/vocalist Megs Etherington.

MARTY WILDE

Thur 2nd March at 7.30pm
Tickets £21 Pass Card £19.50

An opportunity to experience, live on stage, one of Rock 'n' Roll's original pioneers.

Marty, whose career began in 1957, was amongst the very first British singers to play a leading role in the early formative and ground breaking Rock 'n' Roll years. He is also one of the few still performing in the world today.

Playing his many hits - combined with a host of magical songs from that wonderful era - Marty and his fabulous band, The Wildcats, will take you on a trip down Memory Lane and guide you through some of the most exciting musical periods that this country has ever experienced.

A fantastic evening awaits all ages! Enjoy this musical roller coaster of a show, which has become one of the most acclaimed on the circuit today.

Don't miss it!

STEVE PARRISH – THE MAD TOUR

Fri 3rd March at 7.30pm
Tickets £20 Pass Card £18.50

Enjoy the life and times of Steve Parrish (Stavros) which provide a completely different, colourful, humorous and, at times daring portrayal of this man's career.

Steve Parrish raced at the highest level of motorcycle racing, with his highest finish coming in the 1977 500cc Grand Prix season, as team mate to that year's champion Barry Sheene. Steve then dabbled with sports car racing before moving to truck racing "because it was less painful than riding bikes".

Steve was the BBC commentator for Moto GP and is now a pundit for BT's coverage of the sport. He has been commentating since 1988, but he is equally famous in the world of motorsport for his pranks, and the real reason for this show.

With a life full of scrapes, near misses and funnies, including riding Barry Sheene's bike to qualify for the world championship, filling rooms of sport personalities with live frogs, and jumping hire cars from second floor car parks in Daytona onto the beach.
